History of FNBF

The Florence Nightingale Benevolent Fund was established in 2001 for the purpose to help members of the Malta Union of Midwives and Nurses in time of difficulty relating to illness. The Florence Nightingale has a number of benefits that supports our members and their loved ones in different ways. With your contribution you will not only benefit from this fund but will be able to help your fellow colleagues in time of need. The Florence Nightingale Group Committee holds meetings once a month to discuss and issue claims of members that they received.

Group Committee Members:

Chairperson: Ms. Winifred Buhagiar

Secretary: Mr. Joe Galea

Treasurer: Ms. Claire Zerafa

Member: Ms. Carmen Abdilla

Benefits

The Florence Nightingale Benevolent Fund (FNBF) aims at acting as a means of support for its members who are passing through particularly difficult times. Eligible members need to have contributed for at least six months. Benefits include:

Sick Leave:

1. If a member is on sick leave half pay, he/she may receive 232 euros every fortnight for a maximum of 464 euros. When a member applies for refund and sick leave is staggered, the Group Committee will refer to PSMC appendix 4.11,(page 282)
2. If a member exhausts all his/her sick entitlement on full and half pay and is on sick leave without pay. He/She may receive 464 euros every fortnight for a maximum of 1,392 euros.

Loss of allowances due to an Injury on Duty:

1. If a member is not able to work due to an injury sustained while exercising his/her duties and although receiving a basic salary, misses out on more than 2,230 euros in allowances. He/She will benefit from half of the allowances lost, up to a maximum of 700 euros. It is important to note that funds will be given only to the injuries sustained during the full-time employment, and in the cases of part-timers, where this part time employment is the only employment.

Financial Support in conditions of Terminal Illness:

1. If a member is diagnosed with a terminal illness, he/she has the right to apply to the FNBF Group Committee, for a one time only, a maximum sum of 2000 euros to help on paying the treatment prescribed by the consultant doctor.
2. The member's beloved ones as listed in the benefit - Medical Treatment Abroad from point 3 to 9 - can benefit for a one time only from 33% of their request to the maximum amount of 1000 euros.
3. If the treatment is being paid by the Government, the the member or his/her beloved ones (applicants) has no right to apply. If the applicants opt to receive a different treatment, from that being offered by the Government and/or seeks treatment abroad, the applicants must present a note from a local medical consultant stating the advantages that the applicants would be receiving by taking a different treatment from that given by the Government and/or the advantages of receiving the treatment abroad. The FNBF Group Committee has the right to seek a second opinion from an independent local medical consultant.
4. The member applying for this benefit can also apply for the benefits listed in the Medical Treatment Abroad, Sick Leave and Counselling Services.
5. If the FNBF Group Committee receives other claims that are not attributed to terminal illnesses but are as serious as these cases, the FNBF Group Committee must refer them to the MUMN Council for its decision.

Benefits

Medical Treatment Abroad:

1. Should a member require medical treatment abroad (which treatment is not available locally), an air ticket is offered to the member and another ticket to the person accompanying him/her. If a member's ticket is funded by the state, an air ticket is offered to the accompanying person only.
2. FNBF also offers 50 euros, for each day spent abroad for treatment, up to a maximum of 28 days. These funds are allocated for the expenses of transport, food etc. during the stay abroad.
3. A married member's spouse and his children or legally adopted children or fostered children can also benefit from this clause. The provision for the children lasts until they arrive at the age of 18 years.
4. For a single status member who lives with his parents, his parents can benefit from this clause while the brothers and/or sisters can benefit until they arrive at the age of 18 years.
5. For a married member who lives with his spouse and his parents, his parents cannot benefit from this clause.
6. For members who are separated or divorced and their children live in a different address, their children can still benefit from this clause. When applying for this benefit a child birth certificate from the public registry has to be presented to the Group Committee.
7. If a married member regains the single status and will start living with his parents, only his children will benefit from this clause. If the member does not have children or partner then his parents will benefit.
8. When a member lives with a registered partner, the partner can benefit from the fund but the partner's own children will not benefit. The partner will benefit after six months being registered with the Group Committee.
9. The member obliged to inform the fund for any changes in his status, and to send a copy of the partner's identity card to the fund.

Benefits

Retirement From Work:

1. Once a year a social function is organised in recognition of the service carried out by FNBF members who would have retired during the previous year. Each member is awarded a thanksgiving memento and invited to a reception. Members have to inform the GC that they are going to retire from work.

Counselling Services

1. Members are entitled to individual/group counselling sessions with a professional counselor from the Richmond Foundation. Where group sessions are concerned the Group Committee may opt to refer the members to an alternative professional counselor besides the Richmond Foundation. The Group Committee is entitled to evaluate all requests related to group counselling.

Death of Members:

1. In the case of a death of a member, the sum of 1000 euros is given to the person who pays for the funeral as a contribution towards the funeral expenses.

Newletters:

1. Information about FNBF Benefits and activities organized by the Group Committee are published in the MUMN Magazine 'Il-Musbieh' periodically.

Diary:

1. Each year a diary is provided for free to all FNBF members.

Annual Meeting:

1. Each year the FNBF Group Committee organize an annual meeting to all the FNBF members. During this meeting the secretary of the Group Committee reads out the administrative report while the treasurer will read out the financial report.

Claim Submission:

1. Claims are to be submitted to the FNBF Group Committee (GC) within twelve months from the date of occurrence. Reimbursement will be given on submission of all requested documents to the FNBF Group Committee.
